

THE DAILY CHRONICLE.

SUNDAY MORNING, AUGUST 4, 1872.

CHRONICLE OFFICE—19 MARKET PLACE.

The Largest Circulation of any Daily in East Tennessee.

Religious Notices.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.—Situated southwest corner of Clinch and Prince streets. Sabbath School at 9 A. M. Preaching at 10 A. M. and 8 P. M. Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 8 P. M. Subject for this morning, "Church Music." For evening, "David and Goliath." You are cordially invited to attend. ALL SEATS ARE FREE. J. B. FORD, Pastor.

FIRST BAPTIST.—Rev. Wm. Carson will preach at the Baptist Church at 10 o'clock A. M.

GERMAN LUTHERAN.—Service at this Church at the usual hours, 10 A. M. and 8 P. M. Sunday School at 9 A. M. All are invited to attend. JOHN HECKEL, Pastor.

CHURCH ST. M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH.—Services at the usual hour, 10 A. M., by the Pastor. No service on Sunday.

BROAD ST. M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH.—The fourth quarterly meeting for this church is in progress. Preaching at 10 A. M., followed by the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and at 8 P. M. by Rev. J. W. McTeer, P. E. Knoxville District. Love Feast at 4 o'clock. Quarterly Conference will meet at 4 o'clock P. M. Monday.

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL.—Services in the morning at 10 and in the evening at 8 o'clock, by Rev. J. Howard Smith, Rector.

CHURCH OF EPIPHANY.—Sabbath School, 9 o'clock A. M. Services by the Rector at 10:30 A. M. and 8:30 P. M.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN.—Services at the usual hours by Rev. James Park. Sunday School at 9 A. M. Strangers are invited to attend all these services.

CATHOLIC CHURCH.—First mass will occur at 8 o'clock A. M., and second mass at 10 o'clock A. M. Sunday School at 2 P. M. Vespers at 8 P. M.

LOGAN'S CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH.—Marble Alley. Rev. Henry Deboise, pastor. Services at 10 A. M. and 8 P. M. Class Meeting at 2 P. M.

MT. ZION BAPTIST CHURCH.—Patton street. Rev. Wm. Howell, pastor. Services at 10 o'clock A. M., 3 o'clock P. M. and 8 P. M.

SHILOH CHURCH.—Clinch street. Rev. G. W. La Vere, pastor. Services at 10 A. M. and 8 P. M. Sunday school at 2 P. M.

ELDER W. B. SMITH preaches at Temperance Hall at 11 o'clock to-day.

Personnel.

Col. George E. Grisham, editor of the Jonesboro' Flag, was in the city yesterday.

Call and see the splendid Diamond Rings at Joseph Wood's Jewelry Store.

Election Returns.

Our edition of yesterday was exhausted and still the demand for the election returns exist. We give it to you on our third page and can supply any demand.

Died.

Near Louisville, Blount county, on Monday, the 26th ult., Mr. Daniel Taylor, aged seventy-nine years. The deceased was a pensioner in the war of 1812. One by one they are passing away.

Ministerial Association.

The Ministerial Association of the Knoxville District, M. E. Church, will be held at New Market, commencing August 11th, instead of the 17th. All concerned will take due notice and govern themselves accordingly. J. B. FORD, Secretary.

If you want to see fine Diamond Rings, call at Joseph Wood's Jewelry Store.

A Chance for Money.

Mr. T. H. Reeves, at Jonesboro', has received in envelope post marked Knoxville, some money, without any accompanying explanation. Whoever sent it can get it back by paying for this notice. It calls for within thirty days, he will appropriate it as "conscience" money.

Aurora Borealis.

About half-past eight o'clock last night the sky toward the north and west presented a very beautiful appearance. The bright rose tint interspersed with tints of a lighter blue, gave an appearance like as if the divine goddess Aurora, with fingers tipped in morn's first flush, had begun to limn the sky with her fair fingers.

Fire in Careyville.

On Friday night the store and dwelling house of Dr. Hart were destroyed by fire. The fire is supposed to have originated from a defective flue in the kitchen. The greater portion of the merchandise and contents of the furniture were saved, though most of his valuable papers and about two hundred dollars in cash were completely destroyed. The loss is estimated at about $2,500, with no insurance.

East Tennessee Female Institute, Knoxville, Tennessee.

The full term of this growing Institution, unsurpassed in East Tennessee in the thorough qualifications, enthusiasm and tact of its teachers, and probably unequalled in the scholarship and culture of its pupils, will commence on Wednesday, September 11th, and continue five months.

For further particulars, address M. C. Butler, Principal, or Hugh L. McClung, Secretary, Knoxville, Tennessee. viii-d&w&t.

A Card.

Business interests, independent of my vocation necessitate the relinquishment of my position as foreman in the wholesale saddlery and harness establishment of Thomas O'Connor & Co., in this city. In the event of my being called away from the above firm, I take pleasure in adding my testimony to the courtesy, enterprise and integrity of the gentlemen comprising the same. Our mutual relations have always been pleasant, and I trust profitable, and whatever success may be attained by myself, I shall ever sincerely wish them the success they so eminently deserve. J. J. McCONNELL.

How to Raise Big Melons.

Some of the good farmers of the 11th District, near Lyon's Bend in the Holston, have by long and hard work, and who shall raise the largest watermelons. The rival contestants in this novel matter are H. C. Badgett, Capt. Cottrell, E. Hinton, W. Duncan, J. Currier, N. T. Hinson, P. Johnson, N. Rudder, J. McCord and J. C. Beem. Since Mr. H. C. Badgett has come out victor. We saw yesterday in the crowded store rooms of H. C. McLean, on Market Square, two of the largest of Badgett's melons. One weighed fifty-two and the other fifty pounds. They were truly large melons. Mr. J. C. Beem purchased the two for three dollars and sent them to the Monroe County Farmers' Club, which meets Monday, at Sweetwater.

Fine Work.

We saw, yesterday, at Thos. O'Connor & Co.'s saddle and harness manufactory, one of the finest saddles ever made in that house. It is a lady's side saddle, Morgan tree, with leaping horn, covered with dressed buckskin and English hog skin, elaborately stitched. It is the workmanship of Mr. Charles Spencer, who deservedly ranks among the best saddlers in the State, and reflects credit alike on himself and the establishment. This saddle was made to order for a planter's daughter near Holly Springs, and the right side containing a saddle and books. The stirrup is the imported French slipper, and is lined with crimson velvet. The price of this saddle is $125.

Messrs. O'Connor & Co. are doing a heavy business in the Southern States, which is daily increasing, and it requires a large force of workmen and an immense amount of material to fill their orders. We are gratified at the success of our home institutions, and none are more worthy of success than the firm above named.

EXCITING SCENES ON THE HOLSTON.

The Democracy Starting for Salt River.

Unwilling Passengers and Bitter Complaints.

The banks of the Holston were lined yesterday morning by the disconsolate friends of the local Democratic leaders, who were gathered to see them off on their pilgrimage to the traditional stream where disappointed place hunters are supposed to find relief for their sufferings. The scene was one of confusion, for several of the passengers were sent for on short notice. They had made no preparations to go and their baggage and provisions were gathered up in a hurry. The boat was all ready Friday morning, but as the crew expected a mixed company for passengers the departure was delayed a day to make the changes the unexpected result of the election made necessary. John Gibbs and Gratz had their apartments all fitted out weeks ago, and were ready to start off Thursday morning, but Yarnell and Mynatt wanted them to wait till four o'clock anyhow, as it was uncertain how far up they would have to go. Gibbs and Gratz had canoes on board, as they said it was certain they would have to go further up than a boat would carry them. Yarnell wanted to stop to see if he couldn't get the company of some of the members of the Knoxville clique, who had tried to run him out because he had worn the blue, and wasn't hardly respectable enough for the "ring."

THE UNWILLING PASSENGERS.

About 6 o'clock Thursday night Capt. James Boyd, one of the most experienced boatmen in these diggings, sent word to Gibbs to hold the boat, as thunder was to pay, and the chances were he would have to wait for them. About an hour before that his friends had been congratulating him in front of the Bank, where the Trustee funds had been deposited. The programme had been to send Frank Bearden up near the head waters. But as the returns came in, the excitement and chaffing, gathered round, trying to console him. But he wouldn't be consoled. He couldn't understand it, and didn't propose to. How a plain man from the country could distance him in the first race was a puzzle.

Hudburg had kept up a show of courage, but it turned out he had his beef all salted down and was ready. He and Gibbs had their baggage packed together and rations for a long trip. A Market Square merchant was on the wharf keeping a sharp look out for Hudburg. The latter ought to have been sent up last election, but as he was beaten only nine votes he was excused. But the Market Square man wants the race next time so he was determined Hudburg should get off this trip, certain. He saw him safely stowed away before he would rest easy.

SOME CONSCRIPT PASSENGERS.

Just as the boat loaded with Boyd, Mynatt, Yarnell, Gibbs, Gratz and Hudburg was pushing off an excited crowd rushed down the river bank with Jim Williams, hat off, mad as fury, hallooing for the boat to stop. One fellow from the country in putting Jim aboard, said it had come to a nice time when they could get a man in when once elected. Col. John Williams was on hand and refused to let the boat off unless Sam Ramage and John Fleming were put aboard. He swore they had been such a load to carry that they ought to go along. Their "big organ" had played the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of Republicans it had stirred up and driven into the "straight" vote. A good many of Boyd's and Williams' friends endorsed Col. John in what he said. The feeling was that the "big organ" hadn't given the right sort of music and ought to be taken up the river to be tuned. The old loyal league was up at the head waters and many seemed to think Ramage ought to go up and stay and let the "big organ" play the thunder and he wanted them out of the way. Jim, he said, was a popular man and could certainly have carried the county by a large majority if such dead weights had not pulled him down. The war cry on the wharf was "Go up and get them!" and the morning was the biggest fool thing any party leaders ever were guilty of. He knew of lots of